

Submissions for Publishing with Waldorf Publications

The Publications Committee of the Research Institute for Waldorf Education (RIWE) is always glad to receive ideas for future publications. Thank you for thinking of us for getting your manuscript published. In order to consider your work for publication RIWE and Waldorf Publications request the following:

1. A Prospectus submitted to the Publications Committee of RIWE via Patrice Maynard at patrice@waldorf-research.org which includes:
 - a. The proposed name of our manuscript:
 - b. Your name and contact information with address, email, phone, and fax:
 - c. A brief description of your book or proposed book:
 - d. An outline of the contents of the book:
 - e. A list of chapters or Table of Contents:

- f. A sample chapter (or the entire manuscript if already completed or near completion):
- g. A statement as to the intended length of your book:

- h. A sentence describing the intended audience for your book.

2. Any information about existing funding that exists to get your book published.

Please take as much room as you need but be as brief as possible. Add pages as addenda as needed. We look forward to considering your submissions for publishing.
